

CONFIDENTIAL

HEADQUARTERS
825TH TANK DESTROYER BATTALION

RDF/jfs

AGO 655, U. S. Army
1 December 1944

Subject: Monthly Report of Activities.

To: Commanding General, Special Troops, 12th Army Group, APO 655, U. S. Army.

In compliance with Section I, Administrative Bulletin Number 71, Headquarters, Special Troops, 12th Army Group, dated 24 October 1944, the following report is submitted:

NOVEMBER

During the month of November the 825th TD Battalion (less detached units) was stationed in Luxembourg with its primary mission being the perimeter defense of 12th Army Group (TAG).

Company "A" at La Reid, Belgium remained attached to "T" Force and together with elements of the 536th Armored Infantry Battalion formed three (3) task forces of its three (3) platoons. Intensive maneuvering and training in street-fighting began with a view to future operations; the secondary mission of plotting the course of V-1 continued.

Scattered detached units were relieved of or assigned security missions on a schedule best shown as follows:

DATE	UNIT	PLACE	REMARKS
1 Nov 1944	1 Squad, 1st Sec. 2nd Plat, Co. "B"	Luxembourg	Guard Radio Transmitters. Relieved of similar duties at Grevels.
6 Nov 1944	3rd Plat Co. "C"	Eagle TAG and O's Qtrs "A"	Relieved and returned to Bn. Control.
7 Nov 1944	2nd Sec, 1st Rcn. Hq Co.	Longwy, France	Guard Radio installations.
8 Nov 1944	1 Squad (15 EM) Co "B"	Luxembourg	Guard - PW Cage.
10 Nov 1944	2 Men, Co. "C"	9th AAF Air Strip (VP 8714)	Guard, C.G.'s C-47.
15 Nov 1944	1 Man, Co. "C"	Hettange, France	Guard Coal Pile.
15 Nov 1944	1 Squad (12 EM) Co. "B"	Limerle, Belgium	Guard V. H. F. Station.
21 Nov 1944	1 Squad (10 EM) Co. "B"	Beaufays, Belgium	Guard Radio Station.
22 Nov 1944	1 Man Co. "C"	Hettange, France	Relieved Guarding Coal Pile.
24 Nov 1944	1 Squad (12 EM) Co. "B"	Massogne, Belgium	Guard Radio Station. Relieved of similar mission at Limerle.

At Luxembourg five (5) air raid alarms were sounded during the month and numerous flying bombs were seen.

For the Commanding Officer:

ROGER D. FEE,
Capt, 825 TD Bn.,
Adjutant.

CONFIDENTIAL

10