

Bottachiari Suffers Wound

Pvt. Ernes A. Bottachiari, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bottachiari of Front street, has written that he was wounded in the left hand during action in France in November. He is now in a hospital in England and has been awarded the purple heart, which he sent to his family. He has also received the sharpshooter carbine and expert machinegun medals.

Private Bottachiari is a graduate of Nott Terrace High school and was employed by the General Electric Co. before entering service on Sept. 8, 1943. He trained at Camp Hood, Tex., and went overseas with a tank destroyer unit.
