

Everything O. K., Johnstown Draftees Say

Tribune Staff Photo

Eight Johnstown young men entrained for the city's first contingent under the Selective Training and Service Act. They're giving the thumbs up, and they are giving the thumbs up. Everything is going to be all right. Francis Wolfe, 21, of 319 Strauss Avenue;

Johnna today—the Selective Training and Service Act. They're giving the thumbs up, and they are giving the thumbs up. Everything is going to be all right. Francis Wolfe, 21, of 319 Strauss Avenue;

Linden Avenue; Richard Long, 22, of 151 Fairfield Avenue; Edward J. Mayer Jr., 21, of 216 Broad Street; Norman S. Wilner, 25, of 339 Tioga Street; Stephen W. Brier, 23, of 730 Franklin Street; Charles Polippo, 23, of 405 Maxham Avenue and Omar Bernard George, 26, of 217 Maple Avenue. Their average age is 22 years, nine months.