Twins Ready to Confuse Enemy

Former Cedar

When a certain tank destroyer unit goes into action against the Axis, Adolph and Albert Haschke will be there to throw the enemy into con-

Adolph was in Battery D of the 200th CAA and got as far as San Francisco for embarkation to the Philippines when he was discharged upon reaching the 28 year age limit. He was recalled to the service Jan. 7, 1942, just a month af-ter Pearl Harbor and while his buddies were fighting the battle of

Albert 'decided to enlist in the

The twins come from a family of ten boys and three girls. Six of the brothers are in the armed forces and two of these are now oversea. Richard is a member of a bombing squadron in California; Gilbert is an air radioman at Pensacola; Eddie, an artilleryman, and Frank, in the navy, are now serving overseas. Adolph is the only one of the boys who claims Gallup as home. His wife is a teacher at the Sunny-

The Haschke boys were raised on a farm near Cedar Rapids and their father, Frank Haschke, Sr.,

same unit with him, and together they learned the art of destroying enemy tanks at Camp Hood, Texas. Before leaving Gallup Adolph was employed as a guard at Eingate

l ŧ fusion.

, è

L

ı

,

ι

.

side school.

lives here.

Bataan.

ordnance depot.

Gallup, N. M., Independent: -

They look so much alike that even an expert marksman among the enemy troops would think he was seeing double and stop to rub his eyes. That will give the Haschke twins their opportunity to score.